

The rules and guidelines are summarized below to assist candidates wishing to pursue doctoral studies in Faculty #5 at Stuttgart University. No guarantee is given that the information provided is correct, complete, or up to date. Only the valid Regulations for Doctoral Studies (Promotionsordnung) of Stuttgart University are legally binding.

Oral examination

The oral thesis defense will be conducted as follows:

The candidate presents his/her dissertation. The presentation should take no more than 30 minutes. This is followed by an oral examination behind closed doors. The oral test will last at least one hour — the test duration will typically be between 60 and 90 minutes.

In the oral thesis defense (see PhD Regulations, Section 11) you must show that you have in-depth knowledge of the specialist field you have chosen for your dissertation.
