

Contract for Master's theses, Faculty 5, University of Stuttgart

[indicative information for students; only the German version of the original contract is legally binding; in cases of doubt, please contact the examination board (pa-mcs@informatik.uni-stuttgart.de); original contract: https://www.informatik.uni-stuttgart.de/fachbereich/gremien/pruefungsausschuesse/Formulare/StADA_Vertrag_2014-01-17.pdf]

- ad 1) add a description of topic and task(s): attachment 1; license conditions for publishing: attachment 2
- ad 2) start date; official end date;
for exceptions, see examination regulations for your course of study
- ad 3) name of examiner; student has to report on progress on a regular basis
- ad 4) catalogize your thesis (ask university library) and follow these guidelines:
 - 1. http://www.vis.uni-stuttgart.de/plain/PA/StADA_Richtlinien.html [topic has to be given by faculty examiners; ask secretary (S. Anstein for MSc CS; U. Ritzmann for others) for number and cover sheet; hand in x printed copies (according to examination regulations) and 3 single cover pages to secretary; hand in 1 printed copy to supervisor personally]
 - 2. general guidelines for scientific writing, pp. 27-29:
http://www.dfg.de/formulare/2_02/2_02_de.pdf
- ad 5) see 4) regarding number of printed copies
- ad 6) exclusive, no-cost, irrevocable right of use of thesis, results and software for free research and teaching
- ad 7) University can purchase an exclusive, irrevocable, unlimited right of use wrt time and place, if patents or copyright is concerned
- ad 8) inventions have to be offered to the University (payed); scheduling according to <https://www.gesetze-im-internet.de/arbnerfg/>
- ad 9) student only has rights for writing of thesis
- ad 10) student has to keep business / company secrets, technical information, etc. to him-/herself
- ad 11) changes to this contract have to be appropriate and in written form
- ad 12) state if thesis can be published by University and student
- ad 13) state if student's name can be published together with the thesis on the institutes' websites
- ad 14) duty to immediately register at examination office and prove that requirements are met

Attachment 2: library license thesis can be downloaded, saved and printed for private use (copyright unaffected; no guarantee for saving and publishing) ad 1. University has irrevocable, non-exclusive and unlimited right of use wrt time and place:

- saving, publishing and making available thesis and metadata
- changing the format if necessary
- reproducing and distributing thesis

ad 2. University can transfer these rights to the German National Library and other databases ad 3. student has to guarantee that no rights are infringed ad 4. electronic version has to be identical to the submitted printed versions and necessary approvals for the publication have to be guaranteed